

"Men hate each other because they fear each other,
and they fear each other because they don't know each other,
and they don't know each other because they are often separate from each other."
Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

SHARING MISSION

We want to create a safe, loving, and respectful atmosphere for everyone who is willing to share their own feelings, experiences and perceptions. Sharing is always voluntary. It's okay if we don't agree or see everything the same way. It is important to give full attention to whoever is talking and to avoid criticism or judgment about another person's sharing or point of view. We can only change ourselves. Our change and growth may, however, inspire someone else.

We have come together to try to learn about racism and to promote a healing process. We will surely make mistakes in our efforts, but mistakes are occasions for learning and forgiving. Hopefully, we will leave these meetings with a deeper understanding and a renewed hope for the future of humanity.
